PRESIDENT SPEAKS

President
Dr. R. K. Gajjar

Dear readers,

The world has now become so dependent on science and technology that today it clings to every new direction the engineering universe takes. Being a developing country, India has advanced significantly and left an unequivocal mark, of being an erudite nation, on the world. But it is never right to be too satisfied with one's success and cease growing. It is imperative to thrive until the life is ideal for all. Engineers, undoubtedly, play an indispensable role in moulding the destiny of countless people. The VGEC family has consistently remained on the forefront to encounter every challenge with infrangible force. Besides the admirable teachers, the benevolent alumni of VAA have invariably invested their precious time and prowess for guiding the curious and dazzling young minds to elevate their competence. It gives me colossal satisfaction to see these youngsters make their home, their country achieve exceptional stature. This newsletter proudly boasts of the achievement and journey our alumni and present students embark on to success. I wish you all for this re-connecting with the alma mater through this newsletter.

WHAT IS VAA?

This is the marvellous idea on which the VGEC Alumni Association is based. VGEC Alumni Association was registered as society in 2015 however seeds were planted in 2004 with the objective to build a bridge between alumni and newcomers. It has been successfully working as a society with the common efforts of alumni, students, coordinators and core team members. Many events such as cultural programs, national level tech-fest, farewell, Vishwasmruti, alumni meet and many more were held by the efforts of whole team members of VAA. VGEC Alumni Association has about 2000 team members. By the joint efforts of our precious alumni, newcomers

Vishwa Smruti 2018

The grand annual alumni meet held on 6th January, 2018 at the very own VGEC campus was conducted with a sincere aim- “Connecting the dots of current students to that of alumni all across the globe”. In addition to this, various functions were organised to recreate and reminisce golden memories of alumni that linked to our beloved campus days.

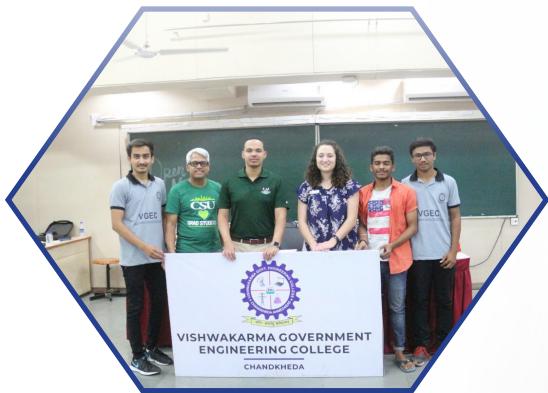

Many of our alumni from abroad were part of the event and their distinguished experiences & suggestions moulded the event into one of its kind. It commenced with alumni registrations for membership followed by departmental activities where Alumni-Faculty get-together was arranged in their respective department. Later, final year student project show-casing was organised that helped them to get their projects reviewed by classified ones. Moving towards the end there were cultural performances by alumni then to a dinner. The event witnessed around 200 alumni from various spheres of engineering. The evening lit up with the nail-biting performances of the alumni at the football ground and concluded with lip smacking dinner. The event was a grand success leaving lasting impressions of the good old times that were cherished, celebrated and refreshed along with creation of many lifetime memories.
